

School of Computer Science – Coursework Issue Sheet

Session	2025-2026	Semester	Spring (Year Long Module)
Module Name	Individual Dissertation Single Honours	Code	COMP3050
Module Convenor	Dr Matthew Pike

Coursework Name	Dissertation	Weight	75%
Deliverable	A significant document outlining the background, motivation, aims, objectives, workplan, and references for the student's final year project.
Format	The dissertation requires 2 separate submissions: • A single PDF file containing the dissertation report. Name the PDF file with your student ID number (e.g., 2021XXXX.pdf). • A single ZIP file containing the final project source code and any other related materials. Name the ZIP file with your student ID number (e.g., 2021XXXX.zip). The maximum word limit for the dissertation's main body in the PDF is 15,000 words or 40 pages A4 sides. Please note that the word limit does not apply to the cover page, references, or appendices. However, all other content within the document will contribute to the word count. There is no prescribed template, format, or referencing style that must be followed for this assignment. If you require guidance on these aspects, we recommend consulting your supervisor for advice.

Issue Date	Beginning of the academic year
Submission Date	28 April 2026 @ 15:00
Submission Mechanism	Submit both the PDF and ZIP files via Moodle (required) and Microsoft Forms (optional, but recommended). Detailed instructions are provided on Moodle.
Late Policy	5 percentage points will be deducted per working day that the assignment is late, in accordance with the standard university penalty.
Academic Conduct	All content submitted in your dissertation must be your own work. The use of generative AI tools to produce any written content is academic misconduct and will be treated accordingly. Ensure proper citation and paraphrasing throughout. Refer to the University's Academic Misconduct Policy for further details.
Feedback Date	Grades and feedback are subject to confirmation by the exam board and, as such, do not adhere to the university's standard 15 working day timeframe. Should you wish to receive informal feedback, you may reach out to your supervisor after 15 working days from submission.
Feedback Mechanism	Feedback provided by supervisor.

Instructions	See the "Submission Guidance" document.
Assessment Criteria	Marking rubric available on Moodle
